

CHICAGO NEWS IN BRIEF

Garage of Star Motor Delivery Co., 2528 S. Wabash av., destroyed by fire. 30 autos burned. Loss $25,000. William Shaughnessy, 3248 Vernon av., slightly burned.

Home of Nicholas Accetturo, 626 S. Morgan st., wrecked by Black Hand bomb. 100 windows smashed and score of families routed. Second attack.

Wm. Shaughnessy, night watchman, badly burned in fire at Star Motor Livery Co., 2528 S. Wabash av. Oil stove exploded. $25,000 damage.

Safety commission starts campaign against trespassing. 5,000 injured and 149 killed on railroad right-of-way in Cook county annually.

Chicago prisoners made counterfeit coins in Joliet penitentiary. Molds for nickels, quarters and silver dollars confiscated.

Frank France, Colonade Hotel, dug into William Murray's drug store, 158 S. Western av., filled pockets with $200 currency and stamps, crawled out of hole into arms of two policemen.

Mrs. Lewinsohn, wife of missing bondsman, up before U. S. grand jury. Falls back on "hearsay" in graft charges.

Police asked to find Albert Cumback, 11, 2817 S. Park av., runaway.

Sergt. Wm. Field tried to stop runaway. Horse walked over face and chest. Badly bruised.

Police shake up expected. 150 changes to be made. Detective force to be hit hard.

Chief Gleason ordered strict enforcement of anti-spitting ordinance.

Lowest bid for Jackson blvd. bridge $230,000.

Mary Doker, 12, 1736 Hudson av., accidentally shot by brother Valentine, 14. Wound not dangerous.

City purchased garbage plant. $275,000 paid.

Louis A. Estes, dentist, surrendered. Released on $1,000 bonds. Practicing without license.

James O'Hara, 756 Washington blvd., arraigned for disorderly conduct, ordered to go to church next Sunday by Judge Dolan.

Note for $200 given by John Lehmann and his wife, Lena, to Dr. E. C. Martin, alleged "quack," declared void by Judge Wells.

Ethelwyn Sivia Jones, well-known actress, secretly married Hon. Angus MacDonnell, second son of Earl of Antrim, in Evanston, Dec. 13.

Funeral auto struck by street car. Gilbert Roob and Mrs. Clara Raab, 1439 N. Clark st., and Mrs. Mata Aaryman and Mrs. Freda Romberg, 2910 N. Rockwell st., injured.

Frank Powers, 4148 Prairie av., stabbed by two men. H. McGreagor arrested as suspect.

100 subpoenas issued in John F. Jelke oleo inquiry.

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout will speak at the Grace Church Forum, Wabash av. and 15th st., Sunday eve, Feb. 1, 1914. Subject: "Feminism from a Political Standpoint."

Movie operators dropped reel of film. 700 patrons of Drexel Theater, Olmstead av. and E. 63d st., panic stricken. 50 rushed to street. Feared explosion.

Home of Louis M. Greenberg, 4850 Prairie av., entered. 2 negroes; got $31 and some jewelry.

Mrs. Lewellyn Price and daughter, Memphis, Tenn., robbed at Hayes Hotel. $2,400 worth of stuff taken.

Frank Allen and George Blanchard arrested. Were trying to enter 3906 Sheridan road.

Residents of South Side terrorized. Burglars busy despite extra detective guard.

Charles Karl, 2037 Kimbark av., arrested on complaint of wife. Hubby objected to her card games. Ordered by judge to escort her home from club.

Grand reception and ball will be given at Garfield Park Lodge No. 478, International Ass'n of Machin-